EAST END TO HAVE ITS SCHOOL

Citizens Will Pay the Rent in Advance. Must Go Out of Town for a Teacher—Bills Paid—The Revised List of Teachers and Their Salaries.

The board of education last night filled the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of Mrs. Whitehead and Murray Nickle, and decided to give the children of East End the benefit of more instruction.

There was a quorum present when President McGraw called for order at 8:30 o'clock, and the board lost no time in taking up its business. The minutes suited everybody, and Mr. McClain at once brought out the question of an additional room for the East End. He realized the needs were pressing, there was an average of 55 scholars in each room; but as a member of the committee who had investigated he knew the condition of the board's finances, and could give East End people no comfort. The law compelled the board to give proper school facilities, and if the condition was understood he believed the community would help the board. He favored the establishment of the new school.

Mr. Vodyrey would not recommend any improvement until he saw the way of the board clear to pay for it. The room was needed, but the board was not justified in having it until it had been submitted to the people.

President McGraw waited a moment for an expression from other members, and when it failed to come allowed the clerk to announce that two notes were due at the banks, each for $2,000. These are the notes made four months ago. It was decided to pay the discount, and renew them until Jan. 1. Bills were paid as follows:

James Welch, $6.73; Andy Rattray, $9.01; cost of Grant street school, $43.86; A. A. Willets, $9.90; William J. Johnson, $33.05; Eagle Hardware company, $4.80; desk books, $59.21; Sheedon & Co., $38.68; Public School Printing company, $5.92; Gaining company, $1.60; Lee & Shepard, $2.13; M. B. & G. M. Acker, $6.35; George H. Deidrick, $36.98; S. D. Sanor, $35.75; Mercer Stevenson, $11.58; Crisis, 80 cents; J. S. Andrews, $1.50; Mrs. A. Roberts, $3; A. Rattray, $5.03; W. H. Travis, $8.45; Arbuthnot & Bros., $320.23; W. T. Norris, 96 cents; Gimm & Co., $497.26; McMillan & Co., $13.50; D. C. Heath & Co., $190.79; American Book company, $777.34; Harper Bros., $15.85; Maynard, Me. & Co., $10.37; Henry Holt & Co., $7.50.

A bill from the city for grading the Calcutta road at the Grant street school was sent back to Clerk Hanley for explanation, and Arbuthnot Bros., were only paid $300 on account. To equalize this heavy expense it was announced the board had sold books to the amount of $800.

Mr. Stevenson suggested that Miss McHenry and Miss Esterly, who had been changed from the Central building to East End, be paid more salary to make up for additional expenses. He thought $35 and $32.50 would be right, and it was so decided. Clerk Norris read the following list of teachers, their assignments and salaries as it had been revised:

Central building—Florence Updegraff, $30; Bertha McVey, $36.66; Francis M. Glidden, $50; Claribel Preston, $45; Cora Henry, $45; Annie Austin, $45; Sara McKenty, $30; Lucile Jones, $30; Ida Agner, $42.50; Mary Smith, $45; Mary Buchanan, $35; May E. Bower, $45; Delia Hayes, $40; Laura Conkle, $42.50; Maud Dawson, $42.50; Clara Williams, $35; Clara Beal, $40; Gertrude Agner, $30; Anna O. Myers, $45.

West End—Mary J. Crofts, $32.50; Lizzie Stevenson, $30; Estella Finley, $35; Grace Faulk, $30.

Trentvale—Charlotte Rose, $35. Gardendale—Ella Shaw, $42.50. Sixth street—Annie Gardner, $50; Maggie Roach, $45; Maud Fisher, $42.50; Carrie Gavers, $30; Flora F. Hale, $45; Agnes Kleinogel, $30; Martha Caliebe, $35; Effie Knowles, $40.

East End—Agnes McHenry, $35; Emma Fowler, $40; Sue M. Esterly, $32.50; Annie Martin, $30.

Third street—Lizzie Griggs, $45; Anna Thompson, $35; Edessa Phillips, $35; Grace Gould, $40.

Grant street—Grace Morgan, $32.50; Eleanor Simms, $30; Mary Jackman, $45.

The university center asked through F. H. Croxall the privilege of using the high school room one night each week, and the president announced there was nothing in the law forbidding it. Clerk Norris thought action should be deferred since desks might be scratched, pens and pencils carried off. He believed a resolution prohibited it. It was left with Mr. McClain, Mrs. Watson and the clerk.

Mr. Stevenson thought the East End school should be disposed of, and said action was imperative. Superintendent Sanor agreed with him. Mr. Vodyrey asked where they would get the money, and Mr. McClain believed that part of it should be submitted to the people. The clerk explained that the repairs at the Grant street school were not anticipated when the estimate was made out, and if money was spent on East End they would run short. Mr. Sanor pointed out the needs of a school in Bradshaw addition, and said no more children could be received at Central building, it was crowded more than East End. Mr. McClain broke away from the principal subject to say people had been talking to him of recesses, and the superintendent assured him they could not give all the children recess at one time, but allowed them to leave the room when necessary.

The matter was not settled, and the resignations of Mrs. Whitehead and Mr. Nickle were brought out. The clerk thought Mr. Nickle could be prevailed upon to remain, but the president believed he could not. Mr. Vodyrey wanted the vote postponed, but Mr. McClain said it was necessary to fill Mrs. Whitehead's place, as the law required it. Mr. Stevenson moved the acceptance of both resignations, and it was passed. Mr. McClain suggested the names of George C. Murphy and J. L. Swan for the vacancies, and the vote in their favor was unanimous. They will serve until their successors are elected next spring.

By this time the East End committee had decided to put their report in writing. They wanted the matter submitted to the people at the November election. Mr. Stevenson guessed he would have to submit, but it would deprive some children of months of school. After some argument, Mr. Stevenson moved a week be cut from the school year, and the money thus saved be devoted to paying the expenses of the new room. After McClain had seconded it, and Mr. Vodyrey and Mr. Norris had expressed themselves as being opposed to shortening the term, the motion was changed so East End people would pay the rent in advance, and passed. That part for reducing the length of the term was cut out. Mr. Vodyrey was the only one who voted no. The committee in charge of the East End school will have general supervision, a teacher from out of the city will be employed because there are none in town, and Mr. Stevenson will see to the fitting up of the room. The board then adjourned.

The discussion developed there were 30 children in East End for whom there are no accommodations in the schools, and about 15 from this district attend the Dry Run school. There are 15 or 20 scholars ready for the grammar school, and Central building is so crowded they cannot be accommodated in the city. The situation was made so plain last night that the board were induced to vote for the plan, and depend upon the people to order an issue of bonds in November. If this is not done the board will have to shorten the school months in order to meet the demands for needed funds to wipe out the indebtedness, make necessary improvements, and keep the property in repair.

WITHDREW THE CHARGE.

A Domestic Suddenly Changed Her Mind.

It developed today that a young girl, employed in the city as a domestic, appeared in the office of a squire, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of a young man very well known. The charge was of a serious nature, but was withdrawn before the accused was arrested. It appears the girl sent him a note asking him to call on her at once. He failed to receive the message, and thinking her wishes were disregarded the girl made the charge. An explanation settled the affair.

ASSAULTED AN OFFICER.

An Incident of Official Life in Wellsville.

Officer Morgan, of the Wellsville force, attempted to arrest Harry Fogo and William Badgley who were fighting on Third street last evening. Fogo at once turned his attention to the policeman, and struck him a number of times. The crowd cheered Fogo, and not until other officers arrived did they succeed in arresting the men. Fogo paid Mayor Jones $6 for his part in the assault. Those in the crowd who encouraged Fogo will be arrested.

New Members.

The Federal Labor union met last night, and received three applications for membership. There was no other business of importance transacted.

THE WHITING INQUEST

One Witness Saw the Father Throw His Wife Across the Room—Testimony By No Means Sensational—The Little One Had a Cold.

Squire Manley was busily engaged today hearing what a number of witnesses knew about the death of Robert Ellsworth McKinley Whiting, the little child of Bud Whiting who was found dead in bed Sunday morning.

The first witness called was John Wesley Howard. He said: "I don't know anything in particular about the case. I played with the little one on Friday morning, and it appeared to be well in all respects. I don't know whether any foul act was committed. The child had no indication of sickness Friday morning, but appeared lively and energetic. I know the Whittings well. About two weeks ago I saw Whiting grab his wife when she had the baby in her arms, and throw her clear across the room. But I did not hear him make any threats. She was standing in the door when he grabbed her, and I did not stand and look at it, but went back in my shop. I don't think he hurt the child at that time. I did not see the child after Friday morning."

Mrs. Ellen McClure—I don't know anything of the Whiting family. I never spoke to Bud Whiting until last Sunday, when I went in their house on hearing of the death of the child.

Mrs. Jane Dorff—I reside in the Farmer block in East Liverpool. I have been acquainted with the Whittings about 10 months. I don't know that I saw the child of Whiting for several days before its death. It was then in tolerable good health, only it had a cold. I was called in by Bud Whiting on Sunday morning to see the child. It was then dead. I could not see any indication of violence on the child. It lay as though asleep. The child had had a cold for several days, probably a week.

Mrs. Maggie McEntree—I reside on Broadway in the city of East Liverpool. I first saw the child of Whittings about three weeks ago. It then had a cold. The mother of the child told me then that the child was raptured. I did not examine the child for the reason that I did not know anything about raptures. I don't know anything further about the child.

Bud Whiting—My name is Ellsworth M. Whiting. I am the father of the child which died so suddenly on Sunday morning, the 27th day of September, 1896. About 3 o'clock on Sunday morning I closed my place of business, and went to bed. At that time the child was sleeping. I awoke again about 5 o'clock and the babe was still sleeping. I could not perceive that the child was any way uneasy when I looked at him. My wife woke me up again about 7 o'clock, and on looking at and feeling my boy I discovered that he was dead. I went for the doctor, and he told me it would be necessary to notify the coroner, which I did. I was awake also about 4 o'clock, and saw my wife nursing the babe and I went to sleep again.

Mrs. Lulu Whiting—I am the mother of Robert E. M. Whiting, who was found dead in bed on the morning of the 27th day of September. My child has been sick with a cold for about three weeks; three weeks ago he was very sick. He then got some better, and last week he got worse again, and he was restless at times and he would wheeze as though he was troubled with phlegm. Sometimes when he was nursing he would quit to catch his breath. I thought the cold had settled on his lungs, as he breathed short and quick. The baby had a cold and was coughing all day on the Saturday previous to his death. He was three months and 11 days old at the time of his death. About 2 o'clock, and again at about 4 o'clock Sunday morning, I gave the child a teaspoonful of cough syrup made by myself. Other than rubbing his body with camphor and lard, this was all the medicine given to the babe. My attention was called to my baby about 7 or 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning by him sleeping so sound as I thought, and not wheezing as he had done before. I then felt him and found him cold, and awoke my husband who pronounced him dead, and called Mrs. Dorff immediately and my husband went for the doctor. I don't think that my baby was ever very well, his lungs seemed weak. He never cried very strongly.

The statement made by Doctor Hobbs and Doctor Clark, who conducted the post mortem, is as follows:

"Male child, colored, length 34 inches, age three months. The autopsy revealed the following: No external marks on the body, except those due to post mortem changes. Eyes congested; mucus and bloody froth running from nose; tongue partially protruded; blood very dark and fluid; extreme engorgement of right lung and lower part of liver; right side of heart full. Conditions present lead us to suspect death from suffocation."

Robert B. Allen—I am not very familiar with Bud Whiting, nor his wife. In fact we don't speak or have any dealings. I never saw the child of Bud Whiting. I never heard Whiting make threats against his wife or child."

The squire did not render a verdict this afternoon as he desired to hear what Mrs. Gilmore, a witness, had to say, and she could not be found. Whiting was represented at the inquest by Attorney W. M. Hill.

IS THIS REPUBLICANISM?

Bills For Republican Meetings Are Printed in a Democrat Office.

It is stated, on absolutely reliable authority, that a member or members of a Republican county committee, at a point not a thousand miles distant from East Liverpool, are having bills printed in the office of a notorious copperhead sheet, said bills calling for a grand rally of Republicans at different points throughout the county where the said copperhead sheet is printed. This is an insult to every Republican newspaper in the county and to every true Republican voter, and it is only a question of time until such committees are relegated to a back seat in Republican ranks, and finally go where they belong—into the fold of the enemy, where they can back openly the opponents of the boys who wore the blue and advocate the cause of copperheadism and treason. In the term "copperhead" we mean just what we say, and do not mean "Democrats," as many noble, loyal Democrats fought, bled and gave up their lives for the Union cause, the writer having had the pleasure of meeting with and fighting by the side of a staunch Democrat, dyed in the wool, and as gallant a soldier as ever pulled a trigger in defense of "Old Glory."

VETERAN.

FELL OFF THE TRAIN.

John Mosby, a Lisbon Man, Will Probably Die.

Lisbon, Sept. 29.—[Special]—The visit of Lisbon people to Major McKinley was marred by an accident which will probably result in the death of a well known man. His name is John Mosby, and he has lived for many years at the residence of Judge Billingsley. He fell off the train when four miles from Canton on the return trip, and was not missed until the train had gone some distance. Mosby was brought here, and was found to be so badly hurt that he may not recover.

WOULD BE FOR MCKINLEY

If He Only Had the Debt on His Property Paid.

It is related in East End that a free silver advocate of that part of the city has taken a decidedly selfish view of political issues. He is reported as telling a friend that if his property was free of a mortgage and the purchase price had been paid he would shout for McKinley all the time, but as he is in debt and the election of Bryan will allow him to pay what he owes in debased coin he proposes to vote that way and save money. That's repudiation with a vengeance.

MARY ANN IS A WIDOW.

A Letter From England Says Tommy Humphreys Is Dead.

Mrs. Humphreys, who was the partner of the joys and sorrows of Tommy, has received a letter from England containing the news that her husband was dead. Tommy was an odd character, and lived here a number of years. He was a constant customer of the township trustees, and was sent to the infirmary several times. He would not remain there, and last year the trustees thought it best to send him to his friends in England. He was known to every child in the city.

Rented a Piano.

The scholars of the school over which Miss Preston presides in the Central building have rented a piano, and had it placed in the room. The rent will be paid by voluntary contributions from the children.

In the George Building.

The university class will meet this evening in the George building, the arrangements having been made today.

NO NEED OF ALARM

Sore Throat Often Mistaken For Diphtheria.

A CHILD DIED THIS MORNING

The Funeral Took Place This Afternoon. No New Cases Reported to the Health Authorities Today—Physicians Say There Is No Danger of an Epidemic.

No new cases of diphtheria have been reported to the health authorities today, and every precaution tending to keep down the disease is being taken.

The illness of James, a son of Alexander Hineman, of Ravine street, was reported last night, and at 4 o'clock this morning the boy died. The child suffered from diphtheritic croup, and was only ill a few hours. He was in school last week. The funeral took place this afternoon, and interment was made in Spring Grove.

The three deaths of the past few days have greatly alarmed some people, and the wildest of rumors have been floating about the city all day. Doctor Ogden says that at present he can see no cause for alarm, and the health department is taking every precaution known to medical science. Other physicians stand by him in the statement that there are only a few cases of the dreaded disease in the city. One prominent physician said there were many instances where people suffered from sore throat, but it was not diphtheria, and simple treatment, such as any skilled physician can give the patient, will speedily effect a cure. He could find no reason for alarm, and thought all fear of the diphtheria becoming epidemic would speedily die out when the facts were known.

HENRY GEORGE IN TOWN.

The Great Single Taxer Dropped In Today.

Henry George, the great single taxer, arrived in the city today at noon, and, with his son, Henry George, Jr., registered at the Thompson House. They were in conference with J. C. Deidrick all afternoon, and it is believed they were sent here by the Democratic national committee to look up the record of Major McKinley and his attitude toward labor. Mr. George, it is believed, came here for the sole purpose of endeavoring to find some flaw in the splendid record of the major, and, if possible, rake out something relative to his connection with labor troubles in 1882. The facts are so well known, however, that the visitors will find themselves engaged in a goose chase before they leave the city.

THE NEW MINISTER.

They Liked Rev. S. B. Salmon Down the River.

The Toronto Tribune has this to say of Rev. S. B. Salmon, recently appointed to the Second M. E. church of this city: "Reverend Salmon is not only able and eloquent in the pulpit, but has endeared himself to all both as a minister and a man by his kind and unassuming ways and never failing good humor—always has a smile and a cheery greeting for one and all, and can take or give a joke without a thought of bending or breaking his ministerial dignity. Such young men are bound to do good no matter where their lines may fall—the demand for them exceeds the supply."

THOUSANDS OF BARRELS.

The Apple Crop Will Bring Money to This Section.

A large force of men are employed in the big orchards across the river, and the crop is being picked and packed as rapidly as possible. The work has progressed to that point where the owners of orchards can estimate what they will send out of this section, and the figures are surprising. The Brenneman orchards will yield 8,000 barrels, the Brown 40,000 and the Mahan 12,000. As rapidly as packed the apples are shipped east and west, and many are being held for a better price.

RECOVERING LOGS.

Thousands Were Lost In the Flood Last Summer.

Mr. Derving, a lumber dealer of Point Marion, W. Va., was in the city today searching for timber lost during the flood last summer. He called on H. A. Kountz, residing on the Wellsville road, and found he had over 300 logs, some of which bore the mark of Mr. Derving's company. For each log the owners paid 25 cents. His concern lost over 100,000 logs by the flood, but his agents have scoured the river so thoroughly that many have been recovered.

The discussion developed there were 30 children in East End for whom there are no accommodations in the schools, and about 15 from this district attend the Dry Run school. There are 15 or 20 scholars ready for the grammar school, and Central building is so crowded they cannot be accommodated in the city. The situation was made so plain last night that the board were induced to vote for the plan, and depend upon the people to order an issue of bonds in November. If this is not done the board will have to shorten the school months in order to meet the demands for needed funds to wipe out the indebtedness, make necessary improvements, and keep the property in repair.

WITHDREW THE CHARGE.

A Domestic Suddenly Changed Her Mind.

It developed today that a young girl, employed in the city as a domestic, appeared in the office of a squire, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of a young man very well known. The charge was of a serious nature, but was withdrawn before the accused was arrested. It appears the girl sent him a note asking him to call on her at once. He failed to receive the message, and thinking her wishes were disregarded the girl made the charge. An explanation settled the affair.

ASSAULTED AN OFFICER.

An Incident of Official Life in Wellsville.

Officer Morgan, of the Wellsville force, attempted to arrest Harry Fogo and William Badgley who were fighting on Third street last evening. Fogo at once turned his attention to the policeman, and struck him a number of times. The crowd cheered Fogo, and not until other officers arrived did they succeed in arresting the men. Fogo paid Mayor Jones $6 for his part in the assault. Those in the crowd who encouraged Fogo will be arrested.

New Members.

The Federal Labor union met last night, and received three applications for membership. There was no other business of importance transacted.

THE WHITING INQUEST

One Witness Saw the Father Throw His Wife Across the Room—Testimony By No Means Sensational—The Little One Had a Cold.

Squire Manley was busily engaged today hearing what a number of witnesses knew about the death of Robert Ellsworth McKinley Whiting, the little child of Bud Whiting who was found dead in bed Sunday morning.

The first witness called was John Wesley Howard. He said: "I don't know anything in particular about the case. I played with the little one on Friday morning, and it appeared to be well in all respects. I don't know whether any foul act was committed. The child had no indication of sickness Friday morning, but appeared lively and energetic. I know the Whiting family. About two weeks ago I saw Whiting grab his wife when she had the baby in her arms, and throw her clear across the room, but I did not hear him make any threats. She was standing in the door when he grabbed her, and I did not stand and look at it, but went back in my shop. I don't think he hurt the child at that time. I did not see the child after Friday morning."

Mrs. Ellen McClure—I don't know anything of the Whiting family. I never spoke to Bud Whiting until last Sunday, when I went in their house on hearing of the death of the child.

Mrs. Jane Dorff—I reside in the Farmer block in East Liverpool. I have been acquainted with the Whiting family about 10 months. I don't know that I saw the child of Whiting for several days before its death. It was then in tolerable good health, only it had a cold. I was called in by Bud Whiting on Sunday morning to see the child. It was then dead. I could not see any indication of violence on the child. It lay as though asleep. The child had had a cold for several days, probably a week.

Mrs. Maggie McEntree—I reside on Broadway in the city of East Liverpool. I first saw the child of Whiting about three weeks ago. It then had a cold. The mother of the child told me then that the child was raptured. I did not examine the child for the reason that I did not know anything about raptures. I don't know anything further about the child.

Bud Whiting—My name is Ellsworth M. Whiting. I am the father of the child which died so suddenly on Sunday morning, the 27th day of September, 1896. About 3 o'clock on Sunday morning I closed my place of business, and went to bed. At that time the child was sleeping. I awoke again about 5 o'clock and the babe was still sleeping. I could not perceive that the child was any way uneasy when I looked at him. My wife woke me up again about 7 o'clock, and on looking at and feeling my boy I discovered that he was dead. I went for the doctor, and he told me it would be necessary to notify the coroner, which I did. I was awake also about 4 o'clock, and saw my wife nursing the babe and I went to sleep again.

Mrs. Lulu Whiting—I am the mother of Robert E. M. Whiting, who was found dead in bed on the morning of the 27th day of September. My child has been sick with a cold for about three weeks; three weeks ago he was very sick. He then got some better, and last week he got worse again, and he was restless at times and he would wheeze as though he was troubled with phlegm. Sometimes when he was nursing he would quit to catch his breath. I thought the cold had settled on his lungs, as he breathed short and quick.

The baby had a cold and was coughing all day on the Saturday previous to his death. He was three months and 11 days old at the time of his death. About 2 o'clock, and again at about 4 o'clock Sunday morning, I gave the child a teaspoonful of cough syrup made by myself. Other than rubbing his body with camphor and lard, this was all the medicine given to the babe. My attention was called to my baby about 7 or 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning by him sleeping so sound as I thought, and not wheezing as he had done before. I then felt him and found him cold, and awoke my husband who pronounced him dead, and called Mrs. Dorff immediately and my husband went for the doctor. I don't think that my baby was ever very well, his lungs seemed weak. He never cried very strongly.

The statement made by Doctor Hobbs and Doctor Clark, who conducted the post mortem, is as follows:

"Male child, colored, length 24 inches, age three months. The autopsy revealed the following: No external marks on the body, except those due to post mortem changes. Eyes congested; mucus and bloody froth running from nose; tongue partially protruded; blood very dark and fluid; extreme engorgement of right lung and lower part of liver; right side of heart full. Conditions present lead us to suspect death from suffocation."

Robert B. Allen—I am not very familiar with Bud Whiting, nor his wife. In fact we don't speak or have any dealings. I never saw the child of Bud Whiting. I never heard Whiting make threats against his wife or child."

The squire did not render a verdict this afternoon as he desired to hear what Mrs. Gilmore, a witness, had to say, and she could not be found. Whiting was represented at the inquest by Attorney W. M. Hill.

IS THIS REPUBLICANISM?

Bill's For Republican Meetings Are Printed In a Democrat Office.

It is stated, on absolutely reliable authority, that a member or members of a Republican county committee, at a point not a thousand miles distant from East Liverpool, are having bills printed in the office of a notorious copperhead sheet, said bills calling for a grand rally of Republicans at different points throughout the county where the said copperhead sheet is printed. This is an insult to every Republican newspaper in the county and to every true Republican voter, and it is only a question of time until such committees are relegated to a back seat in Republican ranks, and finally go where they belong—into the fold of the enemy, where they can back openly the opponents of the boys who wore the blue and advocate the cause of copperheadism and treason. In the term "copperhead" we mean just what we say, and do not mean "Democrats," as many noble, loyal Democrats fought, bled and gave up their lives for the Union cause, the writer having had the pleasure of meeting with and fighting by the side of a staunch Democrat, dyed in the wool, and as gallant a soldier as ever pulled a trigger in defense of "Old Glory."

FELL OFF THE TRAIN.

John Mosby, a Lisbon Man, Will Probably Die.

Lisbon, Sept. 29.—[Special]—The visit of Lisbon people to Major McKinley was marred by an accident which will probably result in the death of a well known man. His name is John Mosby, and he has lived for many years at the residence of Judge Billingsley. He fell off the train when four miles from Canton on the return trip, and was not missed until the train had gone some distance. Mosby was brought here, and was found to be so badly hurt that he may not recover.

WOULD BE FOR MCKINLEY

If He Only Had the Debt on His Property Paid.

It is related in East End that a free silver advocate of that part of the city has taken a decidedly selfish view of political issues. He is reported as telling a friend that if his property was free of a mortgage and the purchase price had been paid he would shout for McKinley all the time, but as he is in debt and the election of Bryan will allow him to pay what he owes in debased coin he proposes to vote that way and save money. That's repudiation with a vengeance.

MARY ANN IS A WIDOW.

A Letter From England Says Tommy Humphreys Is Dead.

Mrs. Humphreys, who was the partner of the joys and sorrows of Tommy, has received a letter from England containing the news that her husband was dead. Tommy was an odd character, and lived here a number of years. He was a constant customer of the township trustees, and was sent to the infirmary several times. He would not remain there, and last year the trustees thought it best to send him to his friends in England. He was known to every child in the city.

NO NEED OF ALARM

Sore Throat Often Mistaken For Diphtheria.

The Funeral Took Place This Afternoon. No New Cases Reported to the Health Authorities Today—Physicians Say There Is No Danger of an Epidemic.

The illness of James, a son of Alexander Hincman, of Ravine street, was reported last night, and at 4 o'clock this morning the boy died. The child suffered from diphtheritic croup, and was only ill a few hours. He was in school last week. The funeral took place this afternoon, and interment was made in Spring Grove.

The three deaths of the past few days have greatly alarmed some people, and the wildest of rumors have been floating about the city all day. Doctor Ouden says that at present he can see no cause for alarm, and the health department is taking every precaution known to medical science. Other physicians stand by him in the statement that there are only a few cases of the dreaded disease in the city. One prominent physician said there were many instances where people suffered from sore throat, but it was not diphtheria, and simple treatment, such as any skilled physician can give the patient, will speedily effect a cure. He could find no reason for alarm, and thought all fear of the diphtheria becoming epidemic would speedily die out when the facts were known.

HENRY GEORGE IN TOWN.

The Great Single Taxer Dropped In Today.

Henry George, the great single taxer, arrived in the city today at noon, and with his son, Henry George, Jr., registered at the Thompson House. They were in conference with J. C. Deidrick all afternoon, and it is believed they were sent here by the Democratic national committee to look up the record of Major McKinley and his attitude toward labor. Mr. George, it is believed, came here for the sole purpose of endeavoring to find some flaw in the splendid record of the major, and, if possible, rake out something relative to his connection with labor troubles in 1882. The facts are so well known, however, that the visitors will find themselves engaged in a goose chase before they leave the city.

THE NEW MINISTER.

They Liked Rev. S. B. Salmon Down the River.

The Toronto Tribune has this to say of Rev. S. B. Salmon, recently appointed to the Second M. E. church of this city: "Reverend Salmon is not only able and eloquent in the pulpit, but has endeared himself to all both as a minister and a man by his kind and unassuming ways and never failing good humor—always has a smile and a cheery greeting for one and all, and can take or give a joke without a thought of bending or breaking his ministerial dignity. Such young men are bound to do good no matter where their lines may fall—the demand for them exceeds the supply."

THOUSANDS OF BARRELS.

The Apple Crop Will Bring Money to This Section.

A large force of men are employed in the big orchards across the river, and the crop is being picked and packed as rapidly as possible. The work has progressed to that point where the owners of orchards can estimate what they will send out of this section, and the figures are surprising. The Beunenman orchards will yield 8,000 barrels, the Brown 40,000 and the Mahan 12,000. As rapidly as packed the apples are shipped east and west, and many are being held for a better price.

Thousands Were Lost In the Flood Last Summer.

Mr. Derving, a lumber dealer of Point Marion, W. Va., was in the city today searching for timber lost during the flood last summer. He called on H. A. Kountz, residing on the Wellsville road, and found he had over 300 logs, some of which bore the mark of Mr. Derving's company. For each log the owners paid 25 cents. His concern lost over 100,000 logs by the flood, but his agents have scoured the river so thoroughly that many have been recovered.

The enemy have abandoned Ohio as the campaign not a Democratic orator mittee. There is evidently some good sense in Democratic headquarters.

THE NEW DIRECTORS.

The appointment of George C. Murphy and J. L. Swan to represent the Third ward in the board of education meets with the approval of all people who want sound business sense in charge of the public schools. The gentlemen are eminently qualified for the position, and will use their every endeavor to advance the school system.

The board followed the law in filling the position by appointment. No election was necessary, although a few wiseacres, who are often wrong in their statements, would have had it otherwise.
 The new directors will serve until next spring, when their successors will be chosen at the regular election.

NO EXCUSE.

The Democratic orators who talk to Columbiana county farmers have much to say about the price of wheat. It is among their favorite themes. They never miss an opportunity to tell the farmer how low is the market price of the cereal at present, and how high it was before those villains, the statesmen of the Republic, committed that crime in 1873, always ending with the assertion that free coinage of silver will alone restore the value of wheat. While these men know that wheat was high soon after the war, and it is low at present, they also know it demanded a good price long years after the alleged demoniza-tion of silver. Not later than during the administration of President Harrison, when the Republican party was in power and the free coinage of silver was not a part of our money system, wheat sold for a dollar a bushel. Often it demanded more than that price, and the years preceding the second election of Grover Cleveland were marked by a rate which made the farmer happy. In view of these facts, how can the Democrats say that free coinage will raise the price of wheat. Rather are we lead to believe that only the conditions surrounding the administration of Mr. Harrison would return good prices to the farmer.

BISHOP NEWMAN

One of the Great Leaders of the
 M. E. Church.

HE TALKS ABOUT FREE SILVER.

What He Thinks of Unlimited Coinage at the Ratio of 16 to 1, Both From the Standpoints of Business Interests and Morals—He Thinks Ministers Should Preach Honest Money, and So Advises in His Charge.

The Rev. Dr. John P. Newmann, Methodist Episcopal bishop of San Francisco is one of the prominent clergymen of the country who believes that in the present campaign clergymen of all denominations, Protestant as well as Catholic, have a duty to perform that is little less sacred and important than that which confronted them during the anti-slavery agitation. He believes that the Christian ministers of the United States should preach the doctrine of honest money from their pulpits with as much fervor as their fathers preached the abolition of the slaves. He believes that clergymen should do this not for politics' sake, but for country's sake. He believes that the honor and the very life of the nation are threatened by those who advocate the free coinage of silver, and with such a crisis, with honesty and right on the one side and dishonesty and wrong on the other, he believes that the Christian church, true to its history and traditions, should present a solid front against the assaults
 prestige.

Speaking recently of the political situation and the duty of the clergy to it, Bishop Newman said:

"In my opinion this country is passing through a crisis almost, if not quite as grave as that which led up to the revolution and rebellion. It is time for patriots, not partisans, for heroes, not demagogues. In such a crisis the responsibility of the clergy is great and their duty is plain. The duty of every Christian minister is to preach the Ten Commandments, particularly the one which says: 'Thou shalt not steal.'

"For the present we must go back from Christ to the Mosaic law. No, I do not mean quite that, for Christ was the defender and expounder of the Mosaic law. Let me say, rather, that we should preach, over and over again, the sermon on the Mount. Those who have nothing to risk would assail the rights of property. There is no more sacred right than the right to have, to hold and to enjoy the product of the brain or the muscle. The Ten Commandments surround property with the muniment of law, and as the rights of property are now threatened, let the voice of the pulpit, from ocean to ocean, proclaim to the Populists and anarchists and communists: 'Thou shalt not steal.'

"In the conferences committed to my charge there are something over 1,000 ministers. I shall call their attention to what I believe is the plain duty of the clergy, and shall urge upon them the importance of using all the influence they possess, in the pulpit and out, against the danger which threatens our country, against the possible triumph of Bryan and Sewall and the election of a congress that is pledged to pass a free silver coinage measure. The pulpit was a powerful agent in freeing the slaves.
 It can be made a powerful agent in reclaiming those of our people who have been led away from their notions of honor and honesty by the false prophets of a false doctrine. If such a stand on the part of the clergy causes dissension in the churches, let dissension come.
 Better dissension in the churches for the sake of the right than peace and quiet while dishonest triumphs and the sappers and miners of the national credit are enthroned in high places.

"The advocates of free coinage say that there is not enough money with which to do business, and that the passage of a free coinage measure will double the money in the country. Let us see if that is true. It must be admitted, of course, that before we can have more silver dollars the silver ore must be mined and then the bullion must be coined into money. Now, the silver ore is controlled by the comparatively few men who own the mines. They will have the money. How are you and I to get it from them? Shall we sand-bag them, or shall we rob their treasure houses, or how are we to get it? They will not give it to us for nothing. Then how will the circulating medium be increased? The silver can come from only one source, and that is controlled by a few persons. They will be benefitted and we shall have a new set of plutocrats, the basis of whose wealth is silver. But you and I won't be benefitted.

"There are a great many idle men in this country today who are ready and willing to work, who are crying 'give us work.' They are ready to work for themselves, for their families, for their neighbors. Many of these men believe that their condition will be better ed if a free coinage measure is passed.

 That might be true if the men who own the silver mines and who will have the silver dollars, in the event of a free coinage measure, would guarantee that they would spend their newly acquired wealth in opening up new industries and in reopening old ones that have been shut down. But we have no assurance that such a disposition will be made of the money. In fact, we have no assurance of anything. All you can get from a silver man is '16 to 1,' and that is the alpha and omega of his argument.

"And while we are adjusting ourselves to the new conditions, if we ever can adjust ourselves to them, there will be panic and business failures and financial ruin. What is the farmer and the laborer going to do during that period?
 Sober thought will convince both. I believe that honesty is the best policy, and to the inspired command of Moses, ringing up the centuries, I believe the answer will go back, 'I will not steal.'

"If I am entitled to speak for anyone at all it is for Protestants Christians.
 The cross, among Protestants, is regarded as the symbol of atonement. Among Catholics, however, the cross is revered with a love that is deep and, in some cases, almost sublime. In the convention that nominated Bryan in Chicago, and in the convention that endorsed him at St. Louis, his friends and supporters in their ecstasy of delight, raised aloft a wooden cross, painted yellow, and marched around the convention halls, hurling cries of derision at that, the symbol of our Savior's death and the symbol which is the Catholic's hope and to which his eyes turn in love and adoration. How a Catholic can support a man who countenances scoffing at the cross, I can't understand, and I don't believe they will."

AN EX-DEMOCRAT.

Why Hon. Henry Bohl Will Vote For McKinley.

While Hon. Henry Bohl of Columbus was at his former home, Marietta, on business recently, he attended a meeting of the McKinley club and was called on to address the club. Mr. Bohl has for years been one of the prominent Democrats of the state. He was twice secretary of the Democratic state committee and twice its chairman. He served three terms as a member of the general assembly, in one of which he was chairman of the finance committee.
 He was appointed by President Cleveland United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio, but resigned to accept a lucrative position in private life. He is a first-class business man, and hence takes no stock in Bryan or his platform of repudiation and dishonesty. In his speech at Marietta he said:
 "This is not a political campaign.
 This is a business campaign, and all who are true to their country ought to ignore party lines. It is of minor consequence whether we are Republicans or Democrats, and with the issues confronting us in this campaign, all men
 be of one solid phalanx against the enemies of national honor, public order, as regulated by law, and the integrity of the United States supreme court."

"Not since 1860 have there been such momentous issues before the people of this country as there are in this campaign. During the civil war the great Republican party, of which Mr. Townsend is a member, and the loyal Democrats of the north saved this nation, and in this campaign the Republican party and the loyal Democrats, north and south, as he has expressed it, will save the national honor of this country. (Long continued applause.)

"Outside of this money question, I am opposed to two other propositions in that platform. I am bitterly opposed to the tenure of Grover Cleveland, in the greatest act performed by any president, certainly by him, when he put down that bloody strike in the city of Chicago. Is there any honest Democrat, Republican or Populist who will stand up and say that President Cleveland did not do the right thing at that time? I honestly believe that if President Cleveland had not come to the rescue of this country at that time that the city of Chicago would have been in ashes. The situation involved the very foundation of this government. As United States marshal I handled the strikes for the government in the state of Ohio in 1894, the coal and Pullman strikes. I know what strikes are. They gave us a great deal of trouble in this state, but they were nothing compared to the trouble at Chicago.

"Our patriotic forefathers created our supreme court and removed it from political influence so that it would not be cowardly but give good, fair and impartial decisions. The party at Chicago has censured that court for doing its duty and declares in favor of removing the life tenure clause and if any judge on the bench of the supreme court—the court of last resort—should make a decision not in keeping with their wishes, that he shall be thrown out of power—or to create a court that will make a decision to suit them. Is there any man in this house who believes this? What kind of a government would we have?
 "Do we want to bring this country down to the level of China, Mexico, Bolivia, Peru, Japan and other nations?
 Our foreign friends sent us their honest money, and it is our honest and sacred duty to pay them dollar for dollar, in the same money we received from them."

"The Republican party, in my opinion, stands grander and prouder than it has for a quarter of a century. Its cause is known to all people. Its policy in this campaign is just, and the right will prevail." (Great applause.)

CONFIDENCE IS NEEDED.

Gentlemen, confidence lies at the foundation of every active and successful business operation. We can not restore confidence by a proposition to debase the currency of the government and scale down public and private obligations. Such a proposition strikes at the very life of credit and business. It makes it harder to get money for legitimate and worthy enterprises by deliberately proposing to pay back what has already been borrowed in a depreciated currency.—Governor McKinley to Pennsylvania workmen.

 of regard and appreciation from the

WHITNEY MARRIED.

 Mrs. Edith S. Randolph.

WEDDED AT BAR HARBOR TODAY.

None of the Relatives of the Contracting Pair Present—Society Expected It, Though Surprised at the Suddenness of the Affair.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Ex-Secretary W. C. Whitney was married today at noon in Bar Harbor to Mrs. Edith S.
 Randolph. Both were staying at the Hotel Malvern, Bar Harbor.

She is the widow of the late ex-Captain Arthur Randolph of East Court, Wiltshire, England. The wedding was private.

The ceremony occurred in St. Sau-veur's church and was performed by Rev. C. S. Lefferingwell, the pastor.
 There were no elaborate arrangements and the groom and bride were unattended, except that Fred May, brother of Mrs. Randolph, acted as usher in the church. The guests at the wedding were few in number, and none of Mr.
 Whitney's family witnessed the ceremony.

Society has been speculating on the event for some time, but not even the closest friend of Mr. Whitney had anticipated that the event would be so soon. Mr. Whitney, himself, when he left the city two weeks ago to recuperate, did not expect to be married so soon. He accidentally met Mrs. Randolf at Bar Harbor, and decided only last Thursday that the wedding should take place today.

Mr. Whitney was ill from a severe attack of rheumatism, and about ten days ago he telegraphed from Newport for a special car and a massage attendant, and proceeded at once to Bar Harbor.
 He rapidly regained his health, and after meeting Mrs. Randolph, they decided upon the date of the wedding.

There are several features which tend to cast a halo of romance over the marriage, the courtship, the sudden engagement and hasty marriage. Mrs.
 Randolph is an old friend of the Whitney family, and has been intimately associated with them for the past ten years.

Mr. Whitney's son, Harry Payne Whitney, with his bride, is now on his honeymoon. The couple will start soon for Vancouver, where they will take the steamship Empress of India for Japan. His daughter, Mrs. A. H. Paget, is with her husband spending the summer in the Adirondacks.

A suggestion that there was any entanglement in the family on account of the wedding was denied positively, as all of the members of the family have been on the best of terms with the prospective bride.

Mrs. Randolph's late husband was a captain in the Fifteenth Hussars, commonly called the "Queen's Own." She was originally Miss Edith S. May, and is a first cousin of Herman Oelrichs of New York, also to Mrs. Colonel William Jay of New York. She is the mother of two children, the eldest 13 years old.

Mr. Whitney's first wife was Miss Flora Payne, daughter of the late United States senator, Henry B. Payne of Ohio.

 Charleston, W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 29.—W.
 L. Wilson, paymaster for the Longdale Coal company, who was held up and robbed of $2,800 which was given in these dispatches yesterday, while going from Sewall to Cliff Tops to pay off the men and who was shot by the robber,

A heavy reward has been offered for the arrest of the highwayman, Thompson, and a posse is in hot pursuit.
 Thompson is a western desperado and it is thought will not be captured alive.
 If captured alive lynching is inevitable.
 Wilson was a very popular and prominent man and one of the highest Masons in this state.

MAY FREE MRS. MAYBRICK.

Chief Prosecuting Witness Makes a Dying Confession.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Press association says it is reported that statements which Superintendent Bryning made shortly before his death will lead to a startling development in the case of Mrs. Florence Maybrick, confined in the Aylesbury female convict prison on conviction of poisoning her husband.

Superintendent Bryning was a conspicuous figure in getting up the case of the prosecution upon which Mrs.
 Maybrick was convicted.

Four Boilers Exploded.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 29.—Four boilers at the Harwood colliery exploded with terrific force, instantly killing Peter Pasker, and fatally injuring Andrew and Michael Hargis. Pasker was in charge of the boilers and it is supposed that he neglected to keep enough water in them. The building was wrecked.

A Missionary Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The third day's session of the convention of the Christian Missionary Alliance was held at the Gospel tabernacle. The convention will last ten days more. The services were under the pastor, Rev. Dr.
 Simpson, who is also president of the alliance.

The Condition of the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—The treasury has lost $76,000 in gold coin and $23,200 in bars, which leaves the true amount of the reserve $122,045,550. The amount of gold in sight, added to that already delivered will bring the reserve up to about $127,000,000.

Wanamaker at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 29.—The Hon. John Wanamaker spoke to an immense Republican mass meeting in Old City hall last night. Fully 5,000 people heard him. A big parade preceded the meeting.

Operatives Return to Work.

WALTHAM, Mass., Sept. 29.—About 1,000 operatives have returned to work in the mills of the Boston Manufacturing company of this place.

TO RESTRICT IMMIGRATION.

Carpenters Propose an Amendment to the Lodge Bill.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 29.—The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners restricted the payment of sick benefits so that in future no member will be paid such benefits for a longer period than two years.

A resolution was passed in favor of restricting immigration to 50,000 a year.
 In this connection the Lodge-Corliss bill was approved with a proviso that immigrants should be distributed by a board of ten members appointed from the labor organizations, who would see that newcomers were not sent to already overcrowded fields of labor; all immigrants failing to find employment within 60 days to be sent back to the country they came from.

An energetic agitation will be started for the enforcement of the eight-hour day in all localities. A bill will be drafted and introduced in congress to make the eight-hour law practically operative for all federal employes, direct or indirect. A satisfactory lien law will be offered for the consideration of all state legislatures at the next sessions.

Officers were elected as follows: Henry Lloyd of Boston, general president; Louise E. Losoy of Detroit and W. B. MacFarlane of Buffalo, vice presidents; P. J. McGuire of Philadelphia, secretary-treasurer; William Flogg of Lewistown, Me., and A. W.
 Swartz of Allegheny City, Pa., were chosen members of the executive board, leaving the three other members to be yet selected.

Spaniards Brutally Beat an American in Cuba.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Sept. 29.—Vice Consul Hyatt has entered an energetic protest in the case of Peter E. Rivery, an American planter, maltreated by Spanish guerrillas on his coffee estate, La Esperanza, near St. Luis, on road to Bayamo. During his protest to the Spanish officer in command of the guerrillas to the destruction of his fences and property by the latter's forces, Rivery was abused and led out to be summarily shot.

The timely intervention of a Spanish scout, who pleaded with the officer and vouched for Rivery's neutrality, alone saved him. Even then the guerrillas were so enraged that, in defiance of the officer's orders, they brutally beat Riv-ery with their machetes, and, before leaving his plantation, tore down the American flag waving over his residence, warning him not to display it again.

EXPLOSION OF GREASE.

It Causes Fatal Injuries to Miners in Idaho.

BURKE, Ida., Sept. 28.—The Tigers' miners' boardinghouse, has been burned by fire, caused by an explosion of grease.

W. K. O'Meara and Joseph Coburn were fatally burned. A. Donaldson, Miss Amy Johnson and Martin McFlab were seriously injured in jumping from the building.

Robert Seales, Pat McHall and a dozen more men were badly burned.

CANDIDATE BRYAN speaks in Wheel-the credit of East Liverpool, few people from this place will be there.

The enemy have abandoned Ohio as hopeless, and from now until the end of the campaign not a Democratic orator will be sent here by the national committee. There is evidently some good sense in Democratic headquarters.

THE NEW DIRECTORS.

The appointment of George C. Murphy
and J. L. Swan to represent the Third
the public schools. The gentlemen are eminently qualified for the position, and
will use their every endeavor to advance
the school system.

The board followed the law in filling
the position by appointment. No election was necessary, although a few wise-
statements, would have had it otherwise.
chosen at the regular election.

NO EXCUSE.

The Democratic orators who talk to Columbiana county farmers have much to say about the price of wheat. It is among their favorite themes. They
farmer how low is the market price of
was before those villains, the statesmen
1873, always ending with the assertion that free coinage of silver will alone restore the value of wheat. While these
men know that wheat was high soon after the war, and it is low at present,
they also know it demanded a good price
long years after the alleged demoniza-
the administration of President Harrison, when the Republican party was in power and the free coinage of silver was
not a part of our money system, wheat
sold for a dollar a bushel. Often it de-
years preceding the second election of
which made the farmer happy. In view of these facts, how can the Democrats say
that free coinage will raise the price of
administration of Mr. Harrison would return good prices to the farmer.

One of the Great Leaders of the
M. E. Church.

and Morals—He Thinks Ministers Should Preach Honest Money, and So Advises in His Charge.

The Rev. Dr. John P. Newmann, Methodist Episcopal bishop of San Francisco is one of the prominent
clergymen of the country who believes
that in the present campaign clergymen
of all denominations, Protestant as well as Catholic, have a duty to perform that
that which confronted them during the anti-slavery agitation. He believes that
the abolition of the slaves. He believes that clergymen should do this not for
politics' sake, but for country's sake. He
those who advocate the free coinage of
honesty and right on the one side and
believes that the Christian church, true
sent a solid front against the assaults
prestige.

Speaking recently of the political situation and the duty of the clergy to it, Bishop Newman said:

"In my opinion this country is passing through a crisis almost, if not quite
patriots, not partisans, for heroes, not
demagogues. In such a crisis the re-
their duty is plain. The duty of every

"For the present we must go back
from Christ to the Mosaic law. No, I do not mean quite that, for Christ was
the defender and expounder of the Mosaic law. Let me say, rather, that we should preach, over and over again,
the sermon on the Mount. Those who
hold and to enjoy the product of the brain or the muscle. The Ten Commandments surround property with the manifold of law, and as the rights of property are now threatened, let the voice of the prophet from ocean to ocean, proclaim to the Populists and anarchists
and communists: 'Thou shalt not steal.'

ministers. I shall call their attention to what I believe is the plain duty of
the clergy, and shall urge upon them
the importance of using all the influence
they possess, in the pulpit and out,
country, against the possible triumph of Bryan and Sewall and the election of a
congress that is pledged to pass a free
a powerful agent in freeing the slaves.
It can be made a powerful agent in reclaiming those of our people who have
been led away from their notions of
honor and honesty by the false prophets
of a false doctrine. If such a stand on the part of the clergy causes dissension
the sake of the right than peace and quiet while dishonor triumphs and the sappers and miners of the national credit
are enthroned in high places.

that there is not enough money with which to do business, and that the passage of a free coinage measure will double
the money in the country. Let us see
if that is true. It must be admitted,
of course, that before we can have more
silver dollars the silver ore must be mined and then the bullion must be coined into money. Now, the silver ore is controlled by the comparatively few men who own the mines. They
I to get it from them? Shall we sand-
bag them, or shall we rob their treasure houses, or how are we to get it? They will not give it to us for nothing. Then how will the circulating medium be increased? The silver can come from
only one source, and that is controlled
by a few persons. They will be benefited and we shall have a new set of placers, the basis of whose wealth is silver. But you and I won't be benefited.

"There are a great many idle men in this country today who are ready and
willing to work, who are crying 'give us, for God's sake, bread for ourselves and our families.' Many of these men believe that their condition will be better-

THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

That might be true if the men who own
the silver mines and who will have the
silver dollars, in the event of a free
coinage measure, would guarantee that they would spend their newly acquired
and in reopening old ones that have been shut down. But we have no assurance that such a disposition will be made of the money. In fact, we have no assurance of anything. All you can get from a silver man is '16 to 1,' and that is the alpha and omega of his argument.

"And while we are adjusting ourselves
to the new conditions, if we ever can
panic and business failures and financial
ruin. What is the farmer and the laborer going to do during that period?
Sober thought will convince both. I believe that honesty is the best policy,
and to the inspired command of Moses,
ringing up the centuries, I believe the
answer will go back, 'I will not steal.'

"If I am entitled to speak for anyone at all it is for Protestant Christians.
The cross, among Protestants, is regarded as the symbol of atonement. Among Catholics, however, the cross is revered
with a love that is deep and, in some cases, almost sublime. In the convention that nominated Bryan in Chicago,
and in the convention that endorsed him
at St. Louis, his friends and supporters,
in their ecstasy of delight, raised aloft
a wooden cross, painted yellow, and
marched around the convention halls,
hurling cries of derision at that, the
symbol of our Savior's death and the
symbol which is the Catholic's hope and
to which his eyes turn in love and
a man who countenances scoffing at the
cross, I can't understand, and I don't

Why Hon. Henry Bohl Will Vote For
McKinley.

While Hon. Henry Bohl of Columbus
business recently, he attended a meeting of the McKinley club and was called on to address the club. Mr. Bohl has for years been one of the prominent Democrats of the state. He was twice
secretary of the Democratic state committee and twice its chairman. He
general assembly, in one of which he
was chairman of the finance committee.
He was appointed by President Cleveland United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio, but resigned
to accept a lucrative position in private life. He is a first-class business man,
and hence takes no stock in Bryan or
his platform of repudiation and dishonesty. In his speech at Marietta he said:
"This is not a political campaign.
This is a business campaign, and all
ignore party lines. It is of minor consequence whether we are Republicans
or Democrats, and with the issues confronting us in this campaign, all men
rally in one solid phalanx against the enemies of national honor, public order,
as regulated by law, and the integrity
of the United States supreme court."

"Not since 1860 have there been such
momentous issues before the people of this country as there are in this campaign. During the civil war the great Republican party, of which Mr. Townsend is a member, and the loyal Democrats of the north saved this nation, and
in this campaign the Republican party
and the loyal Democrats, north and
continued applause.)

"Outside of this money question, I am opposed to two other propositions in that platform. I am bitterly opposed to the measure of Grover Cleveland, in
the greatest act performed by any president, certainly by him, when he put down that bloody strike in the city of Chicago. Is there any honest Democrat, Republican or Populist, who will stand up and say that President Cleveland did not do the right thing at that time? I honestly believe that if President Cleveland had not come to the rescue of this country at that time that the city of Chicago would have been in
foundation of this government. As United States marshal I handled the
strikes for the government in the state of Ohio in 1894, the coal and Pullman
strikes. I know what strikes are. They gave us a great deal of trouble in this
to the trouble at Chicago.

"Our patriotic forefathers created our
supreme court and removed it from political influences so that it would not be cowarded by give good, fair and impartial decisions. The party at Chicago has censured that court for doing its
duty and declares in favor of removing
the life tenure clause and if any judge
court of last resort—should make a decision not in keeping with their wishes,
that he shall be thrown out of power—
or to create a court that will make a decision to suit them. Is there any man in this house who believes this? What

"Do we want to bring this country
down to the level of China, Mexico, Bolivia, Peru, Japan and other nations?
Our foreign friends sent us their honest money, and it is our honest and sacred
duty to pay them dollar for dollar, in the same money we received from them."

"The Republican party, in my opinion, stands grander and prouder than it has for a quarter of a century. Its cause is known to all people. Its policy in this campaign is just, and the right will prevail." (Great applause.)

Gentlemen, confidence lies at the foundation of every active and successful business operation. We can not restore
confidence by a proposition to debase
the currency of the government and
scale down public and private obligations. Such a proposition strikes at the very life of our life and business. It makes it harder to get money for legitimate
and worthy enterprises by deliberately
proposing to pay back what has already been borrowed in a depreciated currency.—Governor McKinley to Pennsylvania workmen.

WHITNEY MARRIED.

Mrs. Edith S. Randolph.

WEDDED AT BAR HARBOR TODAY.

None of the Relatives of the Contract-
Though Surprised at the Suddenness
of the Affair.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Ex-Secretary
W. C. Whitney was married today at noon in Bar Harbor to Mrs. Edith S.
Hotel Malvern, Bar Harbor.

Wiltshire, England. The wedding was private.

The ceremony occurred in St. Saueur's church and was performed by Rev. C. S. Lefferingwell, the pastor.
There were no elaborate arrangements
and the groom and bride were unattended, except that Fred May, brother
of Mrs. Randolph, acted as usher in the church. The guests at the wedding were few in number, and none of Mr.
Whitney's family witnessed the ceremony.

Society has been speculating on the
event for some time, but not even the
closest friend of Mr. Whitney had anticipated that the event would be so soon. Mr. Whitney, himself, when he left the city two weeks ago to recuperate, did not expect to be married so soon. He accidentally met Mrs. Randolph at Bar Harbor, and decided only last Thursday that the wedding should take place today.

Mr. Whitney was ill from a severe attack of rheumatism, and about ten days

Mr. Whitney's son, Harry Payne Whitney, with his bride, is now on his honeymoon. The couple will start soon for Vancouver, where they will take
Japan. His daughter, Mrs. A. H. Paget,
is with her husband spending the summer in the Adirondacks.

A suggestion that there was any entrangement in the family on account of the wedding was denied positively, as
all of the members of the family have been on the best of terms with the prospective bride.

Mrs. Randolph's late husband was a captain in the Fifteenth Hussars, commonly called the "Queen's Own." She was originally Miss Edith S. May, and
New York, also to Mrs. Colonel William Jay of New York. She is the mother of two children, the eldest 13 years old.

Spaniards Brutally Beat an American
in Cuba.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Sept. 29.—Vice
Consul Hyatt has entered an energetic
protest in the case of Peter E. Rivery, an American planter, maltreated by Spanish guerrillas on his coffee estate, La Esperanza, near St. Luis, on road to Bayamo. During his protest to the Spanish officer in command of the guerrillas to the destruction of his fences
and property by the latter's forces, Rivery was abused and led out to be summarily shot.

The timely intervention of a Spanish agent, who pleaded with the officer and vouched for Rivery's neutrality, alone
saved him. Even then the guerrillas were so enraged that, in defiance of the officer's orders, they brutally beat Ri-very with their machetes, and, before leaving his plantation, tore down the American flag waving over his residence, warning him not to display it again.

His Old Constituents Called From Lisbon, O.

They Were Ministerial and Lay Delegates to the African Methodist Episcopal Conference at Cleveland—The Major's Speeches.

CANTON, O., Sept. 29.—The first organized delegation to call on Major McKinley this week came from Lisbon, O., in a special train of ten coaches. It was made up of employees of the Lisbon tinplate mills, farmers, business men and mechanics from the vicinity and was accompanied by the Lisbon City band. Hon. R. W. Taylor, McKinley's successor in congress, made the introductory address.

Major McKinley said: I need not say to you that I am deeply moved by this call on this inclement day from my old constituents, and from the home where my ancestors lived. I am glad indeed to have been connected with a piece of national legislation that gave to the town of Lisbon an enterprising tinplate plant, which gives employment, as I am informed, to more than 325 people. You farmers and merchants and business men know how valuable that plant has been to their community, and I submit to you, no matter what may have been your politics in the past, whether you would not prefer to have that tinplate factory in your country and in your state than to have it in Wales. It is an illustration of what has been said thousands and thousands of times by the statesmen of the past, and by the leaders of the present, that the more factories you have in any community, the better will be the general business conditions and the better will be the market for the farmer.

After referring to his personal interest in and friendship for the people of Lisbon, who were his constituents when he was in congress, Major McKinley concluded as follows:

Your presence here indicates that you have not lost interest in Republican principles and that you are as much concerned in their triumph this year as you have ever been before. I am glad to be assured that I have your warm and hearty sympathy and support, as I have had always in the years of the past. I will not venture to enter upon any political discussion this afternoon, feeling certain that the good old county of Columbiana has already determined that her vote shall be given for a sound, conservative, unswerving national credit, an American protective tariff and for the peace and order of society.

A Valley train brought several carloads of ministers and delegates to the African Methodist Episcopal conference, in session in Cleveland, to call on Major McKinley. They marched informally to the McKinley home, where addresses were made by State Senator Green of Cleveland, Bishop Lee and Bishop Arnett. Governor McKinley's address dwelt upon the development and achievement of the race.

Major McKinley said: This is to me a most interesting and inspiring call. I appreciate the kind words, the earnest words, the words of hope, the words of faith, the words of confidence. I wish his voice and his patriotic sentiments so well expressed and so heartily heard by thousands rather than by the few hundred gathered about me today. I am glad to meet the ministers of the African Methodist Episcopal church. They are here to pay me a visit in an honor which I greatly appreciate and shall always remember. It is a matchless civilization in which we live; a civilization that recognizes the common and universal brotherhood of man.

It is a glorious constitution, the American constitution under which we live that secures to every citizen beneath our flag absolute freedom of religion, of conscience, of belief; a constitution that recognizes neither creed, nor color, nor race, nor nationality, nor caste, nor class, but protects and defends all alike, and accords to each civil and religious liberty. The history of your race is one of wonderful progress under the most trying and difficult circumstances. You have demonstrated your patience and patriotism, courage and intelligence, and your willingness to sacrifice for your country and sustain its honor at all times, and under all circumstances. You have made noble and commendable strides in the field of education and industry. Your educational institutions, public and private, are scattered all over the country, and within their walls you are giving generous and liberal education to the men of your race, fitting them for the responsibilities of life and equipping them for good citizenship.

Without a university, in our own state, is a proud monument to your enterprise and character, an institution among the oldest, if not the oldest of its kind, dedicated to the education of your own people, and which is sending teachers and preachers to every part of the country. Not only have you been looking carefully after your intellectual, but you have not neglected the moral condition of your race. You have recognized and properly so, that good character is quite as essential as good education; that good morals are more dependable than learning. Both should go together. In 30 years the membership of your church alone has increased from 172,000 to about 600,000. I am glad to note that from 1,334 to 4,252. I am glad to note that the advancement of any organization which has for its object the elevation of mankind and the improvement and betterment of our citizenship, and the race gratulations upon the progress you have already made and my prayer for still greater progress in the glorious opportunities which you are blessed. I am glad to stand in your presence today, a great international exposition at Chicago, when men of all countries and races and religions had assembled under one roof, your Bishop Arnett was chosen to represent your race. It was a high and delectable credit to your race, and to our Ohioan credit to your race, and to our increasing pride in him and the race he represents. May God bless and keep you all. It will be a pleasure, if it shall be yours, to meet and greet each one of you personally.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN'S TOUR.

Reached New York and Then Spoke in New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—William Jennings Bryan returned last yesterday afternoon from his New England tour, and, after spending about 30 minutes at repaired to Northern New Jersey, escorted by a committee of New Jersey Democrats, where two of the biggest meetings of his eastern tour were held.

At Paterson the crowd was so great that the police had to fight to make a passageway to Mr. Bryan's carriage. A stand had been erected on Col's hill, site of the new postoffice, an open space covering an area of several square blocks. The crowd packed into this space was tremendous, and when the candidate appeared there was a great outburst of applause, fireworks and cannon. The light went out causing confusion, but were soon turned on again. Mr. Bryan bade farewell to Connecticut at New London, although he added a few words at New Haven, the last stop in the Nutmeg state. At New London, Mr. Bryan found questions, and for some time carried on a dialogue with an elderly gold man near the speaker's stand. The police were inclined to interfere at first, but Mr. Bryan begged them to let the interrogator go on with his questions, as he would be glad to reply to them. The light went out causing confusion, but were soon turned on again. Mr. Bryan bade farewell to Connecticut at New London, although he added a few words at New Haven, the last stop in the Nutmeg state.

Evidently, New Haven wished to make amends for the reception Mr. Bryan received there last week for the depot sheds covered a mass of enthusiastic forces, both in point of numbers and in volume of lung power. Mr. Bryan spoke to them only a moment, but in that moment he gave them opportunity to disclaim any participation in the riotous demonstration of the collegians. There were short stops at Bridgeport and Stamford, where several hundred people had congregated but they were just long enough for the candidate to shake hands with those nearest him. Mr. Bryan arrived at New London, Conn., at the Fifth Avenue hotel a short while before Mr. Bryan reached the city. He parted company with Mr. Bryan at New London, Conn.

HARMONY IN NEW YORK.

Republican Factionists Joined in a Big Mass Meeting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Republican mass meeting at Carnegie hall last night was a great success. The gathering in the immense hall was a representative and notable one. On the platform, which was tastefully decorated, sat, elbow to elbow, Republicans who for several years had been at loggerheads on local issues. They apparently forgot past differences to make the rally for the gubernatorial candidate a success. Besides Frank S. Black, candidate for governor, and Timothy L. Woodruff, candidate for lieutenant governor, were Garrett A. Hobart, vice presidential candidate.

TOOK THACHER'S PLACE.

Porter Promoted From the Place of Lieutenant Governor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Wilber F. Porter of Watertown has been nominated by the Democratic state committee for governor, to take the place of John Boyd Thacher.

Frederick C. Chaub of Lewis was nominated for lieutenant governor, to take the place of Mr. Porter. Chairman Danforth had been looked upon as certain to be named for governor, and had given his consent, conditional upon being permitted to retain the chairmanship of the state committee. It is said, however, that Senator Hill daily refused to promise him his support, and for that reason he announced that his name should not be used.

An Opponent to Miles.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Alexander Crow, Jr., has been nominated for sheriff by the Republicans of this city who are opposed to the nomination of James L. Miles, the administration candidate, who was nominated a few days ago. His nomination was preceded by one of the largest Republican gatherings ever seen in this city. THE SULTAN YIELDS.

Promises France to Force Reforms in Turkey.

FRANCE MADE A STRONG THREAT.

No Dissension Among the European Powers Owing to the Action of the French Government—May Improve the Condition of the Poor Armenians.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Times' Paris correspondent quotes a Constantinople dispatch to The Times, which confirms the report that M. Cambon, the French ambassador at Constantinople, has made serious representations to the sultan regarding the massacre of Armenians. The dispatch expresses the belief that the sultan has promised to constitute a commission to extend reforms throughout the Turkish empire.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A Paris dispatch to The Chronicle says that M. Cambon's mission to Constantinople is a success. "The ambassador," the dispatch adds, "adopted a tone almost a menace toward the sultan. There is not the slightest fear of dissension among the powers."

TO SAVE GREATER NEW YORK.

Noted Evangelists Will Hold Public Religious Meetings.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Ministers of all denominations crowded the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. hall, in response to a call having for its object the evangelization of greater New York. Rev. J. M. King presided. Opinion was divided as to the expediency of holding public meetings in cosmopolitan centers under the auspices of the clergy. After much discussion, it was decided to endorse the project of holding public meetings in Cooper Union hall as a beginning. Other meetings in different parts of the city, as well as in Brooklyn and Jersey City will follow. Mr. Dwight Moody, Mr. Sankey, Mr. Needham and John McNeill of Aberdeen, Scotland, will open the campaign of evangelization in Cooper Union on Nov. 9.

SHOT A DRUGGIST.

A Doctor Accused Him of Wrongdoing. Wounded His Wife.

DUNCANSON, Pa., Sept. 29.—Dr. T. L. Johnson, a leading physician of this borough, has made an unsuccessful attempt to kill his wife and Dr. A. S. Henry, a druggist living nearby. Johnson called Henry into his office and charged him with intimacy with Mrs. Johnson. Before Henry could reply Johnson pulled a revolver and fired at him. Two bullets lodged in Henry's head and another in his bowels. Johnson's wife, who witnessed the shooting, turned to flee when she heard the first shot. Her husband fired at her, and the shot inflicted a slight flesh wound. Henry's condition is serious, and there is grave doubt as to his ultimate recovery.

THE OHIO VALLEY GAS CO.

THE Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

Arthur Gazely and Secretary Kling Warmly Greeted.

There was a fine audience present in the new quarters of the Young Men's Christian association last night, to do honor and render greeting to Arthur Gazely and State Secretary Kling, and a really delightful program was rendered. Secretary Will Morris was master of ceremonies, and right royally did he fill the berth. President Alvin Bulger was called to the front and made a very happy speech of welcome, responded to in a like pleasing manner by Mr. Gazely, well known and deservedly popular in East Liverpool. Miss Pearl Swan was heartily applauded for an artistic piano solo, after which a quartet, composed of Mrs. Foreman, Miss Sutton, George Smith and Chris Horton, won warm applause in their rendition of "The Auctioneer," a comic selection, and responded to the encore with a popular college song, in honor of Mr. Gazely.

Next on the program came an instrumental quartet, composed of Charles DeEds, Olin Barbick, Doctor Bean and Sherm Monypenny, and the delighted audience compelled the young gentlemen to render a second and third selection.

Professor Harper, Miss Grace Reed and Miss Georgie McLane won popular favor with a splendidly executed vocal selection from the "Merry Milkmaids," with Miss Pearl Swan at the piano.

Mrs. Foreman, accompanied on the piano by Miss Clara Chapman, next gave a pleasing vocal solo, followed by the mandolin quartet in "Home, Sweet, Sweet Home," after which Secretary Kling addressed the assembly, warmly urging that the friends and well wishers of the Young Men's Christian association should rally to the support of the organization in East Liverpool.

Rev. J. M. Huston then pronounced the benediction, after which an informal reception and general hand-shaking was indulged in. The universal verdict of those present is that the program of the evening was a decidedly enjoyable one.

A VERY SORE ANKLE.

Dr. John Lloyd Lee is Confined to His Room.

Yesterday the pain had increased so it was found necessary to summon a physician. The ankle was found to be dislocated, and the ligaments were strained. The gentleman is getting along as well as could be expected.

A NEW TARIFF BILL.

That Is What Labor Wants Rather Than a New Dollar Bill.

The notable thing about Mr. McKinley's front porch campaign is the preponderance of the "creditor classes" in the delegations that visit him from day to day. Who are these creditor classes? Certainly not the bondholders, bankers, brokers or corporation monopolists, who Mr. Bryan claims are determined to corner the gold in the markets of the world. No delegations of bankers have called upon Mr. McKinley at Canton. No goldbug octopus has been sunning his greedy tentacles on Mr. McKinley's front porch.

The delegations that have been addressed by the Ohio protectionist thus far are composed of laboring men from the shops, the factory, the railway and the farm. These are the "creditor classes." To these men the owners of factories and railroads are debtors from week to week. Their interest in the maintenance of an honest and stable monetary system and in the restoration of the American policy of protection is greater than that of the millionaire and banker. That the crowds of people who visit Major McKinley are largely made up of this class of "creditors" is significant.

To a delegation of mill operatives from Pittsburg Major McKinley said:

There are two things which deeply and personally interest the workmen. They are work and wages. They want steady work at good wages. They are not satisfied with irregular work at inadequate wages. They want the American standard applied to both. With steady work they want to be paid in sound money. They do not want to lose any part of their hard earnings through poor dollars, and they don't want to be paid in dollars whose value can only be ascertained by the daily market reports. Whatever work they now have is paid for in good money, and therefore no complaint is made on that score. They are satisfied with the money, but they are not satisfied either with the scant work or the reduced wages. They are satisfied with the present dollar bill, but they are not satisfied with the present tariff bill.

Under the present standard for measuring the value of labor the dollar bill is all right. The workman knows it is worth 100 cents in any market in the world. He is not anxious to have it changed, but he wants more of them than he has been in the habit of handling in the last three years. He can't get them through the mints. He can't possess them if he is denied the opportunity to earn them by honest labor. Mr. Bryan has not yet shown in any of his speeches how he would free the coinage of 1 dollar from getting into the hands of labor through the mints. The burden of proof is upon Mr. Bryan.

The laboring men want a new tariff bill; the dollar bill is all right.—Chicago Times-Herald.

SILVER CALENDAR.

What the Leading Nations of the World Did.

The following financial calendar of the past quarter of a century shows what the leading nations of the world have done with silver during that period:

- 1871. Germany adopted a gold standard.
- 1873. Belgium suspended standard silver coinage.
- 1873. Holland suspended silver coinage.
- 1873. Denmark adopted a gold standard.
- 1873. Germany demonetized silver coins.

- 1875. Switzerland declined to coin her quota of silver under Latin Union.
- 1875. Suspension of silver coinage on account of Dutch colonies.
- 1876. France suspended the coinage of silver.
- 1877. Finland adopted the gold standard.
- 1878. Spain suspended the free coinage of silver.
- 1878. Latin Union suspended coinage of silver except subsidiary coins.
- 1879. United States resumed coinage of the silver dollar, but on government account.
- 1879. Austria-Hungary suspended the free coinage of silver.
- 1880. Egypt adopted a gold standard.
- 1880. United States suspended coinage of silver dollars and began the purchase of bullion.
- 1890. Gold standard adopted in Tunis.
- 1892. Austria-Hungary adopted the gold standard.
- 1893. Mints of India closed to the free coinage of silver.
- 1893. United States suspended purchase of silver bullion.
- 1895. Russia decided to coin 100,000,000 gold rubles.
- 1895. Chile adopted the gold standard.
- 1895. Costa Rica adopted the gold standard.
- 1895-1892. Three international conferences held to try to re-establish the use of silver.

Meantime the United States increased her full legal tender silver 50 fold in the face of a 50 per cent fall in its value, until her credit and financial standing could endure the strain no longer, and she was obliged, reluctantly, to suspend silver coinage.

What would happen if she were to re-mint and open wide the doors of her mints to the discarded silver of the world? It does not require much of a financier to answer that.

A Market, Not a Mint.

"You can not help the farmer by more coinage of silver. He can only be helped by more consumers of his products. You can not help him by free trade, but as I have shown, he can be hurt, and seriously hurt, by the free introduction of competing products into this country. Better a thousand times enlarge the markets for American products than to enlarge the mints for the silver product of the world. [Tremendous cheering and cries of "You are right."] You might just as well understand now that you can not add value to anything by diminishing the measure of the value with which the thing is sold or exchanged. If you can increase the value by lowering the measure of value, and you want to benefit the farmer, then make the bushel smaller, the pound lighter, and declare a legal dozen less than 12. [Great laughter.] The home market is the best friend of the farmer. It is his best market. It is his only reliable market. It is his own natural market. He should be protected in its enjoyment by wise tariff legislation, and this home market should not be permitted to be destroyed by lessening the demand for American labor and diminishing the pay of American workmen and thereby diminishing the demand for agricultural products." [Applause.]—William McKinley's address to farmers.

Sometimes an apparently dead man may be revived—may be resuscitated. Sometimes it is often hard to tell whether the man is dead or alive. We hear of people who have been buried alive. A man must be completely dead before hope should be abandoned. It used to be true that when a man found he had consumption, he gave up immediately. Consumption was considered a necessarily fatal disease. It was considered incurable. As soon as it developed enough so that a physician could decide that it was really consumption, the patient was considered as good as dead. Years ago, Dr. Pierce found out that consumption was not incurable, that it was not a necessarily fatal disease. He not only found this out, but he found out a way to cure consumption. He introduced his "Golden Medical Discovery." The "Discovery" will cure 95 per cent of all cases of consumption if it is taken according to directions. Consumption is a disease of the blood, and is caused by impoverishment of the blood, and by the existence of disease germs in the system. If the body is perfectly strong and healthy, and the blood perfectly pure, germs are easily thrown off. If the body is weak, if the tissues are incapable of much resistance, the germs find a resting place and develop. That's the way consumption begins.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" searches out the germs, forces them out of the system and cures consumption and other kindred diseases of the throat, bronchia and lungs. No doubt about it, no question about it. It has done it in hundreds and thousands of cases. The "Discovery" is sold at drug stores.

THE WORK GOES ON.

East Liverpool is Interested—It Has Much to do With the Welfare of Our People.

Never out of work. That's the case with the kidneys. Twenty-four hours to the day is the time they put in. They're equal to it when they're well. But they get sick. Stomping positions of the body, Straining, a fall or over-exertion. Often make the kidneys sick. But the work must go on. They need a helper. They ask you for it through the back. When the back aches it's the kidneys calling for assistance. Neglect their petition and trouble follows.

Serious trouble, urinary trouble, diabetes, Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are kidney helpers. Perfect mechanics in their line. Help the kidneys and cure their ills. Hard at it here in East Liverpool. Relieving tired kidneys, curing sick ones.

The good work goes on. Here's some evidence of it. Mrs. Wm. Dunn, of 192 Sixth street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did for me what none of the doctors could do. Doctors told me I had gravel and a little relief was all I could expect. I suffered terribly—not only lately, but for two or three years, alternately better and worse, with severe pains across the small of my back and up my sides, particularly my right side. The pains were so severe that I was often obliged to stay in bed, not being able to get up. My limbs used to swell up so I could hardly walk, and periodically would be taken with severe pains through the groins that I could hardly stand it. The doctors advised hot applications and gave me bottle after bottle of medicine, but I did not receive any real benefit until I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy. Having seen them so highly recommended by others, I took them and the result was a complete cure. I am now able to get up, and I have every confidence they will ultimately cure me."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, or sent by mail by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
